NO REST AT THE RESORT

A Scenario for the Online Wehrmacht '47 Supplement to Micro Armour: The Game - WWII

Nearly two years ago GHQ introduced the Wehrmacht '47® line of Micro Armour® and rules needed to use them. Weapons technology is never static, and the Wehrmacht '47 models are based on real late-war plans for new German equipment. Some of these new generation weapons actually saw limited combat, but most never made it past the prototype stage, and none saw wide deployment.

Wargaming is all about "What-if?" questions. Wehrmacht '47 was designed to open up yet more avenues of inquiry. Oh yeah, and the models are cool. Download the rules for free in the "Free Stuff" section of the GHQ website (www.ghqmodels.com) to play the following scenario.

NO REST AT THE RESORT

Karelia Resort - June 12, 1947

Germany is following up its successful breakthrough by sweeping around the Allied lines to cut off the only good road supplying the U.S. and Finnish forces on the Karelia Peninsula. The Germans had seen how effective the "Motti" tactic was in disrupting the Russians during the Winter War and looked for a strategic pivot point that can be defended against raiding Finns. One target presents itself where the road passes between two large lakes. This once quiet and scenic spot still hasn't recovered from the last time it was fought over. Some improved earthworks still exist though they are in disrepair.

Now both the Germans and the Allies race toward this critical point to seize it, hold it, and dig in.

SCENARIO LENGTH: This scenario lasts for 15 turns before night falls and the two sides must withdraw.

SPECIAL RULES

Lake borders: The ground is as soft sand within 2 inches of the larger bodies of water or within 1" of the smaller bodies of water, unless it is up a contour or on the road.

Old Improved Positions: The abandoned improved positions have degraded since they were first built during the Winter War of '39. During set-up of the game roll a D6 for each position. If a 6 is scored the position is a Medium Improved Position, otherwise it is a Light Improved Position.

Breakpoints: Two Breakpoints are listed above for each force. The first number represents the breakpoint for while the Recon Forces are solely on the table and the second is the breakpoint after the main forces arrive.

VICTORY CONDITIONS

Control of the of the causeway and the Hotel Peninsula is critical to both sides. To consider the ruins or the hotel controlled requires to have at least one base occupying the feature and no enemy bases within 1" of it.

ALLIED VICTORY

- a. At the end of the day if the Allies control both the Hotel on the Peninsula and the ruins along the road at the base of the Peninsula, award the Allies a Major Victory.
- b. At the end of the day if the Allies control either the Ruins or the Hotel and the Germans do not control the other, award the Allies a Minor Victory.
- c. If, at any time, the number of Eliminated German stands exceeds twenty-three (23), Award the Allies a Major Victory.

GERMAN VICTORY

- a. At the end of the day if the Germans control both the Hotel on the Peninsula and the ruins along the road at the base of the Peninsula, award the Germans a Major Victory.
- b. At the end of the day if the Germans control either the Ruins or the Hotel and the Allies do not control the other, award the Germans a Minor Victory.
- c. If, at any time, the number of Eliminated Allied stands exceeds twenty-seven (27), Award the Germans a Major Victory.
