

PERSIAN GULF STATES

The Iraqi invasion of Kuwait in 1990 brought the "Persian Gulf States"; Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Oman, Qatar, and the United Arab Emirates, sudden worldwide attention. These states, hereditary monarchies and products of post-WWII British foreign policy, all had three things in common; enormous oil resources, small populations, and small, but well equipped, armed forces. Tables of organization and equipment for these states have been included here for those wishing to include them in "Gulf War" scenarios.

(Although the Kuwaiti Army was overrun and destroyed by the Iraqis in only a few days, it has been included anyway.)
